MINUTES MATTER

IADC - International Association of Drilling Contractors:

“If you're serious about the safety and security of your employees, staff, vendors, and guests; you need to make Greg Shaffer a part of your conferences and conventions. He was such a hit, we brought him in to speak to our Board of Directors Conference.”

Greg is the author of the best-selling book, Stay Safe – Security Secrets for Today’s Dangerous World and is the host of the Investigation Discovery Channel’s, “Body Cam – Behind the Badge”. Greg served in the Federal Bureau of Investigation for twenty years with six years serving on their elite Hostage Rescue Team. After leaving the FBI, he founded Shaffer Security Group, a global security and risk management specialty firm.

He is internationally recognized as one of the leading experts and authorities on active shooter events and domestic terrorism prevention. His responsibilities have included security of all major Special Events such as: Summer Olympic Games; NFL Super Bowls; NBA Finals; Major League Baseball World Series and many other high-profile events which are considered targets of terrorism.

Greg’s expertise has been featured on NBC, ABC, CBS, FOX; written articles for Washington Post, Washington Times, AP News among other prestigious periodicals.
